Vendor Guidelines

CHRISTMAS AT THE FARMER'S MARKET | 2026

MARKET, STATE, AND FEDERAL REGULATIONS

FOOD ITEMS must be locally produced. For this market, local is defined as Wyoming and any state bordering Wyoming. Items outside this definition are considered case-by-case. Vendors are responsible for required food regulations, meeting applicable labeling requirements, and compliance with the Wyoming Food Freedom Act.

NON-FOOD ITEMS We welcome arts and handmade crafts. All items must be handmade or be a value-added product you created. Non-handmade merchandise may promote your farm, ranch, or business only. Antiques, secondhand goods, flea-market-style items, and commercially made items for resale are not permitted.

Vendors and their employees are responsible for informing themselves about and complying with federal, state, and local health regulations and licensing requirements governing the production, display, distribution, sampling, and sale of their products. This includes collection of applicable sales tax.

GENERAL VENDOR GUIDELINES

The Market Board has final approval of vendor participation and final authority on site to interpret and enforce rules and regulations. The Market may revise the rules at its sole discretion, alter operations at any time, and reject any application.

Vendors may sell only items approved on the submitted application. The market has sole discretion to add or delete items from the list; unacceptable merchandise will not be sold at the market.

Vendors will openly and honestly answer questions about products to NEW FARRM, Department of Health officials, and customers. Vendors must be knowledgeable about the products sold, how they are used, and how they are grown or produced.

Vendors are encouraged to obtain and carry their own insurance. The vendor is solely responsible and liable for claims and damages resulting from the sale of unsafe, unapproved, or unsound goods.

INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

The Market Board will have final approval of all vendor participation and final authority on site to interpret and enforce rules and regulations. The Market may, at its sole discretion, revise the Rules and Regulations and alter operations at any time. The Market Board also reserves the right to reject any application. Vendors shall sell only items approved on the application submitted. The market has sole discretion to add or delete items from the list and unacceptable merchandise will not be sold at the market. Vendors will openly and honestly answer questions about products to NEW FARRM, Department of Health officials, and customers. Vendors must be knowledgeable about the product(s) sold, how it is used, and grown or produced, and communicate that clearly to customers. Vendors are encouraged to obtain and carry their own insurance. The vendor is solely responsible and liable for any claims and damages resulting from the sale of unsafe, unapproved, or unsound goods. Vendors not in compliance with this policy will be asked to remove items or tear down immediately with no refund of booth fees.
